WORLDSHIFT HAPPENS!

Facing Down the Fear, Waking Up the Mind

explores through story and fantasy:

- What it means to wake up our minds;
- How to look straight at our deepest fears of aging and dying;
- What life on earth might look like if we did both those things.

Carolyn North has written 12 books on the evolution of consciousness, all in the form of story, and teaches movement and sound for healing. She lives in Berkeley, California with her husband, and currently mentors young people who find their way to her door. She claims that in these times our work is to inspire by creating imaginative change with pleasure, intelligence and beauty.

“I didn’t think it was possible - in one book - to combine dreams and facts, pretend and actuality, the heart and the head, in such a way that our history as “moderns” on this planet is laid bare: what we’ve done versus what we could have done. Carolyn North transcends writing in these pages to reveal herself as a master weaver. ( PMH Atwater, author of Near-Death Experiences)
